A Purpose and use

The PIDLR turns what the site learned in one investigation into lessons that reach a controlled destination. It reviews the investigation by phase (C) and by domain (D), records each lesson with its evidence (E), sends it to the record that will own the change (F), states the residual limitations (G) and confirms that each lesson was applied to the instrument, workflow or document concerned (H) before the debrief is closed (I). It never reclassifies a safety event or a deviation, and it does not replace the CAPA log: it cites them.

Unit of analysis	Decision supported	Inputs	Outputs
One investigation at one site, up to a stated evidence cut-off.	Whether the debrief can close, and which lessons must be transferred and to whom.	MRL, PIR, IMC, CAPA log, SRR, safety and follow-up records (B).	Lessons with owners and destinations; revised procedures; notices to other studies.

B Inputs used

Cite the exact records. Limited or missing inputs restrict the lessons that can be drawn; say how.

I Closing the debrief

The debrief closes when each lesson is applied or has a receiving record, an owner and a date.

Closure	Use when	Select
Debrief closed	All lessons applied; no open limitation of the debrief.	☐
Closed with tracked transfers	Each lesson not yet applied, and each limitation, has a receiving record, an owner and a date.	☒
Not ready to close	A lesson lacks evidence, a destination or an owner.	☐

Open transfers (lesson IDs · owners)	L-01 (radiology tech), L-04 sponsor part (PI)
Revised procedures (version · release date)	SOP-DEL-03 v4, 30 Nov 2026; OR-SOP-11 v5, 20 Oct 2028
Other studies notified	HUMERA-02 PI, memo M-014-41, 30 Sep 2028
Debrief file location and retention	ISF tab 3 / PIDLR-014-01; kept as long as the trial master file
Rationale and remaining limits	Six lessons, each with evidence and a destination. Three are applied in site procedures; the imaging change is in draft and the sponsor has not yet answered on the loaner sets, both with an owner and a date. L-06 stays a residual limitation for the sponsor and the next shoulder study.
